

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

Elections for the BC Crime Prevention Board of Directors will be held at the Annual General Meeting on September 21, 2007. The Board is comprised of 15 directors plus the Past President. Terms are for two years, with half of the directors being elected on alternate years. The Board is comprised of no more than 8 representatives from either the police or community/business sector. At the 2007 AGM, elections will be held for three or four (3 or 4) representatives from the police sector and three or four (3 or 4) from the community/business sector for two year terms. Returning to the Board for the second year of their two-year terms are:

- Byron Boucher (Police)
- Joe Chu (Police)
- George Kjenner (Community)
- Terry McLachlan (Police)
- Kim Nickel (Community)
- Rob Smith (Police)
- Christine Stanley (Community)
- Nelson Stromgren (Community)

Seven positions are open for election for a two-year term, three or four from the policing side and three or four from the community/business side.

Five Directors eligible to stand for reelection are:

- Bruce Ballingall (Police)
- Joanne Bergman (Community)
- Jennifer Collins (Police)
- Pat Holliday (Community)
- Vello Kleeband (Community)

Directors attend a minimum of seven Board Meetings a year, the Annual General Meeting, sit on one standing committee and assist in any other way their skills and interests dictate.

If you are a BCCPA Member in good standing and are interested in putting your name forth for election or would like to nominate a fellow BCCPA Member in good standing to the Board of Directors or for further information, please contact Valerie MacLean, Executive Director at the BCCPA office at (604) 291-9959 ext. 226.
